MCC'S CONTINUING EDUCATION REFUND POLICY

Students receive a full refund for all courses and workshops cancelled by the college.

A full refund is given to students who officially drop a course by 5 p.m. one business day prior to the first class meeting. Failure to attend does not constitute an official drop and no refunds will be granted.

Students enrolling in Education To Go online courses have one week after the start date to drop the course for a full refund. MCC will enforce all other online and contracted companies' refund policies. Any special refund policies are clearly stated in the course descriptions.

All refunds are mailed to the address supplied at the time of enrollment. Processing takes at least two weeks.

Some images were provided by PhotoSpin at www.photospin.com.

Montcalm Community College is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (hlcommission.org), a regional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

Restorative Practices and De-escalating Behaviors

The cost is $10.

The fundamental theory of restorative practices is that "humans are happier, more cooperative and productive, and more likely to make positive changes in their behavior when those in positions of authority do things with them rather than to them or for them" (Wachtel, 2005). Participants will learn the value of the social discipline window as well as how to use effective statements and questions. Restorative practices help to reduce crime, violence and bullying, improve human behavior, strengthen civil society, provide effective leadership, restore relationships and repair harm. When challenging behaviors do occur, having strategies to support students and help de-escalate are vital. Participants will learn about the verbal escalation continuum and strategies to support students in each phase.

Bramble Ramble - 5K Run/Walk and 10K Run

Saturday, Sept. 21, 9-11 a.m.

Start/Finish line at the Barn Theater located on MCC's Sidney campus.

The Bramble Ramble 5K and 10K Run/Walk & Michael Seaman 10K Run showcases the variety and beauty of Montcalm Community College's Kenneth J. Lehman Nature Trails. Participants will cover smooth, open paths and rocky hills, winding trails through pines, oaks, fields, and swamps and finishing on a mowed field. Prizes will be awarded, and T-shirts are included in registration. Family/group registrations are available. View www.montcalm.edu/bramble-ramble for additional information and registration forms.

Dealing with Invasives and Natives

Hosted by the Montcalm Area Master Gardener's Association

Saturday, Sept. 14, 10 a.m.-Noon

Come get your questions answered by the Montcalm Area Master Gardener's. Experts will be on hand to show you various plants and trees around MCC. The event will be hands-on and very informative. Meet at the Greenhouse on MCC's Sidney campus.

Introduction to Fall Fungi

Friday, Sept. 27, 6-8 p.m.

Have you ever seen a mushroom and wondered what it was called? Ethan Christensen, who has completed his Michigan Mushroom Certification and has a great enthusiasm for fungi, will introduce you to fall fungi. Learn the common parts of a mushroom as well as the basic life cycle, then head out on the Kenneth J. Lehman Nature Trails to hunt for and identify mushrooms. People of all ages are welcome. Meet in room A138 in the Stanley P. Ash Building on MCC's Sidney campus.

Mushroom Cultivation on Logs

Saturday, Oct. 12, 10 a.m.-Noon

Ethan Christensen, who has completed his Michigan Mushroom Certification and has a great enthusiasm for fungi, will teach you how to grow mushrooms on logs (all materials provided). Species that may be available include shiitake, oyster mushroom, and lion's mane. Christensen will also talk about other commonly cultivated species and cultivation methods, including log spawning and cultivating mushrooms alongside plants in vegetable gardens. When you leave, you'll have a healthy dose of fungal knowledge and hopefully a spawning log capable of producing mushrooms within a few weeks. Meet in room A138 in the Stanley P. Ash Building on MCC's Sidney campus. There is a $5 charge per person, payable at the event. We encourage pre-registration by Sept. 30 to ensure enough supplies by e-mailing naturetrails@montcalm.edu.

Personal Training

A fun way to rejuvenate and re-invigorate your workouts is with a personal trainer. Working one-on-one with a trainer helps to improve your exercise form and technique and identify bad habits that may be harmful or just aren't productive.

To find out how much a personal trainer can help you achieve your fitness goals, for pricing, and availability call MCC Recreation Coordinator John Davis at 989-328-1209.

Personal Workout Program

Ready to take your exercising to the next level or are you just not seeing the results you have been hoping for? MCC Recreation Coordinator and certified personal trainer John Davis will help design a program just for you. Personal programs help you stay motivated and on track as you strive to be your best. Call MCC Recreation Coordinator John Davis at 989-328-1209 for pricing and to schedule an appointment.

Nutritional Evaluation

Are you exercising, but still not losing weight or you don't have the energy to work out long enough? It may be your diet and not just what you eat, but when you eat and how much. Nutrition timing is key to a healthy lifestyle and a nutritional evaluation can help point you in the right direction. Call MCC Recreation Coordinator John Davis at 989-328-1209 for pricing and to schedule an appointment.

Rock Steady Boxing West Michigan LLC

RSBWM enables people with Parkinson's disease to fight their disease by providing non-contact boxing style fitness programs that improve their quality of life and sense of efficacy and self-worth. Recent studies also suggest that intense exercise programs may be "neuro-protective," working to delay the progression of symptoms. For questions please contact Amy Hooyer at 616-634-4250 or email her at ahooyer85@gmail.com.

Available Outside Activities

Feel like being outside? Check out the Kenneth J. Lehman Nature Trails, tennis courts, sand volleyball court, disc golf course and more on the college's Sidney campus. Maps and discs are available at the Recreation Desk in the Activities Building.
