

Read! on!

The Newsletter for One Book and MCC Reads

Dear One Book + MCC Reads Friends,

Today, Read On! takes us to readers from the northeast part of our county to the southeast corner. Finding your next great read is easy - let's hear from some of our Montcalm County neighbors as they talk titles.

Community Book Chats

Richland Township Library Director Sherma Horrocks and RTL Board President Steve Bigelow met up at their library, in front of the lovely café mural, to talk about their reading experiences, from childhood to now. Sherma and Steve are great friends and avid readers, but as you'll discover, though their reading backgrounds and tastes are different,

MCC Book Chats

Language Arts Instructor Jamie Hansen-Hopkins and her daughter Brooke are a dynamic reading duo – super readers who can fire up the reading spirit in anyone! These two ladies talk about their favorite children's books, from board to chapter books, and celebrate the joy of reading as a family.

each shares a passion for libraries and love to recommend books.

Literacy Champ!

Meet Kristen Kohn, the Executive Director for the Montcalm Area Reading Council. Under Kristen's creative and compassionate guidance, MARC's volunteer tutors provide free literacy services - tutoring adult readers, writers and those for whom English is a second language. Be inspired to join MARC's efforts to shine a light on literacy.

Recommended Reads

Beth O'Grady, the library director of the Carson City Public Library and the Crystal Community Library, provides readers with several unique book stack recommendations, with a hint of Irish flair. See more of Beth's titles on the One Book + MCC Reads page. Visit your local library's e-book collection or give them a call to request one of these books.
