Dear One Book + MCC Reads Friends,

Previous editions of Read On! have shared content focused on aspects of Running with Sherman. At this time, while we continue to encourage you to read the lively and inspiring running story about the donkey who changes the lives of those around him, we are now going to look at movie theaters in small towns, the setting for One Book + MCC Reads other summer selection, the charming fictional title, Virgil Wander. Our area has a rich tradition of cinema showplaces, including the elegant Silver Theater, and noted local musician and historian Keith Hudson takes us on a cinematic trip down memory lane. Discussion questions for both titles are now on the One Book + MCC Reads page. And of course, the wonderful reading recommendations continue as we hear from readers in Carson City, Stanton, Greenville, and Edmore.
